Historical Note:

Joel D. Fish was born in September 1956 to a Jewish family. He grew up in Kansas City, Missouri, and has two siblings, Jenny Fish and Doug Dag. In 1977, Fish married Annette M. Fish. Annette was born in July 1956 and graduated from Fort Hays State University with a bachelor’s degree in organizational leadership. In 2009, Annette started working as the interim director at Vaad HaKashruth of Kansas City. In 2003, she was hired as the administrator/program director of the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City where she has worked for the last sixteen years. Joel and Annette had a son and a daughter named Bryan M. Fish and Cara Schiff.

B’nai B’rith is an international Jewish group dedicated to humanitarian efforts, human rights advocacy, and the continuity of the Jewish faith. It was founded in New York in 1843 by Henry Jones.
