Historical Note:

The men of the 273rd Infantry arrived in England in January 1945. The 273rd was ordered to break the Siegfried Line located at Udenbreth, Germany. After months of hard fighting, the 273rd crossed the Rhine and captured Fort Ehrenbreitstein and Fort Niederberg. In April, they took the city of Mann and Altengroitzsch. On April 13 through April 15, they took part in the campaign at Colditz, famous for the liberation of the prison located at Colditz Castle. This was followed by a battle at Leipzig, which ended on April 20. The army then met up with the Russian Army at Leckwitz near the Elbe River, effectively defeating the German Army.

Leonard Rudy Rush was born April 10, 1926, to Leonard and Leona Rush. He joined the United States Army in 1944. He served with the 273rd Infantry Division through the war.
