Biographical Note:

Helen Louise Welshimer was born on February 17, 1901, in Canton, Ohio. After her schooling, Welshimer went to Hiram College and graduated with a Bachelors of Arts degree. She went on to complete a post-graduate course at Columbia University where she majored in playwriting and stagecraft. Welshimer was a journalist and worked at the Canton News. She was also a feature writer for the Akron Beacon Journal before joining the staff of the Newspaper Enterprise Association Service, Inc. for whom she wrote poems. As many of her poems were published in national newspapers, Welshimer received many prizes for her poetry and requests to have her collection published into a book. She passed away on December 22, 1954, at the age of 53.
